ALEJANDRA I. SACASA, M.D., under the penalties of perjury, affirms and states the following:

I am a physician who is licensed to practice medicine in the State of New York. I work at The Center for Child Health and Resiliency which specializes in pediatric medicine at 890 Prospect Avenue, Bronx, New York.

I am A [REDACTED] J [REDACTED]'s primary care physician. My Affirmation is being submitted in connection with Marisol Javier's application for the Court's permission to settle and compromise the lawsuit which she had commenced on Javier's behalf.

A [REDACTED] J [REDACTED] Date of Birth: [REDACTED], has treated at our clinic for many years.

On October 14, 2014 he was examined A [REDACTED] on a history of having sustained penile swelling and bruising secondary to being punched in his groin by two students at school on October 9, 2014.

When he was re-examined on November 19, 2014 there was mild soft tissue swelling and bruising noted over penis and no scrotal edema or redness noted.

Since May 2016 A [REDACTED] was seeing our social worker, Shira Siltan, for psychotherapy on a regular basis and has made significant improvements.

My examination of A [REDACTED] on December 16, 2019 determined that he had fully recovered and is growing into a confident young man. He has been excelling in school and is excited about the future.

Based upon my examination I am of the informed medical opinion that A [REDACTED] has fully recovered from this incident. He has no physical limitations as a result of the accident.

In my opinion he is in no further need of medical treatment. He is capable of performing all of his regular daily activities without any restriction.
